

Instructions to Transfer Money to Your Schwab Account

Wire transfers allow you to quickly transfer money between other financial institutions and Schwab. Please note that some third-party intermediary banks may charge a fee for wire transfers. Consult with your sending bank for details. Please follow these instructions to wire other currencies (for exchange to U.S. dollars) or to wire U.S. dollars to your Schwab account:

- Locate the wire instructions in the table below for the currency to be wired to Schwab.
- Submit instructions, as indicated, to the bank or financial institution sending funds to Schwab.
- Ensure that the account number and name(s) listed on your Schwab account are included.

You should ask your bank to include all information related to the transfer, including the following, in order to reduce the risk of delay or rejection of payment:

- Sender Information: Amount and date of transaction, name, country, and address
- Beneficiary/Recipient Information: Name and account number
- Originating Financial Institution Information: The name and country of the originating Financial Institution or the Bank Identifier Code (BIC)

*Note concerning Australian Online Banking Transfers:

When you send funds via Online Banking, the name of the bank account you are transferring funds from and your Charles Schwab account name must be identical. Payments received from a bank account that is not in the same name as your Charles Schwab account (third-party payments) cannot be accepted via Online Banking. All money transfers must comply with Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Laws. The information that your bank must include with the transaction in order to prevent the transfer from being delayed or rejected is as follows:

- Sender Information: Amount, Date of Transaction, Name, and Country or Address
- Beneficiary/Recipient Information: Name and Account Number
- Originating Financial Institution Information: Name and Country of the Originating Bank or the Bank Identifier Code (BIC)

In our experience, smaller banks or credit unions may omit this information, which can result in the transfer being delayed or rejected.

If you bank with a smaller institution, we would strongly encourage you to discuss Schwab's AML requirements with your bank before you initiate a transfer.

Third-Party Payments: Should you send funds from a bank account that is not in the same name as your Charles Schwab account, funds must be sent as a Telegraphic Wire Transfer per the above instructions.

Note: Some intermediary banks may deduct a "lifting" or handling fee from the wire transfer amount. Schwab has no control over the intermediary bank's fees (foreign or domestic). If such a fee is charged, the amount is deducted from the wire transfer amount before the client's Schwab account is credited. In rare cases, the sending bank will request the lifting fee be charged back to them and not deducted from the wire transfer amount. Clients should consult with their sending bank to estimate any lifting fees and consider adding the amount to their wire transfer.
