Exchange Process Fee

This is a fee Schwab charges to offset fees imposed on us directly or indirectly by national securities exchanges, self-regulatory organizations, or U.S. option exchanges. Schwab shall have the right to determine the amount of such fees in its reasonable discretion, and such fees may differ from or exceed the actual third-party fees properly paid by Schwab in connection with any transaction. These differences may be caused by various internal and external factors, including, among other things, the rounding methodology used, the use of allocation accounts, transactions or settlement movements for which a fee may not be assessed, timing differences in changes, third-party rate caps and floors, calculation errors, and various other anomalous reasons. The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) assesses transaction fees on national securities exchanges and self-regulatory organizations based on the aggregate dollar amount of sales of certain securities. The SEC recalculates the amount of this fee periodically—at least once per year but sometimes more often. National securities exchanges and self-regulatory organizations offset the transaction fees by charging their member broker-dealers such as Schwab, and we, in turn, offset this fee by charging you an Exchange Process Fee for covered sell transactions.

U.S. option exchanges charge Schwab and other broker-dealers per-contract fees for purchase and sales of exchange-listed options. The exchanges may charge these fees even on transactions executed on other exchanges, which can result in multiple fees being imposed on Schwab for a single transaction. Schwab offsets these fees by charging you a single Exchange Process Fee for each covered transaction.

Any Exchange Process Fee that appears on your trade confirmation for a sale of an exchange-listed option will combine the offset for the fees charged by the U.S. option exchanges, national securities exchanges, and self-regulatory organizations.

Schwab's Exchange Process Fee will rise or fall periodically depending upon the rate set by the SEC, by self-regulatory organizations, or by the U.S. option exchanges, as applicable." or by the U.S. option exchanges, as applicable.

Notes:

- This pricing summary applies only to the HSBA accounts held at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., and established on behalf of HSBA account holders. You can obtain more information about HSBA commissions and transaction fees by calling Schwab's dedicated HSBA Contact Center at 1-800-472-0084, Monday through Friday, 9:00 am through 7:30 pm (ET). Or, view the current Charles Schwab Pricing Guide for Health Savings Accounts on www.schwab.com/hsbapricingguide for a more complete description of all other commissions and transaction fees.
- Your HSBA is a cash-up-front account. For all purchases, we require cleared funds in the account. When you're selling, we require securities on deposit. It is your responsibility to avoid overspending your account. If your account becomes overspent, Schwab reserves the right to liquidate a portion of your account to cover the debit balance. If liquidation is necessary, a broker-assisted fee of $25 will apply.

² Trades placed through Schwab's electronic channels, such as Schwab.com, mobile applications, and automated phone services. Certain securities may not be available through all electronic trading channels. Up to 999,999 shares can be placed per trade.

Trades in no-load mutual funds available through OneSource (including Schwab Funds®), as well as certain other funds, are available without transaction fees when placed through Schwab's electronic channels such as, Schwab.com, mobile applications, or automated phone services. Schwab reserves the right to change the funds we make available without transaction fees and to reinstate fees on any funds. Funds are also subject to management fees and expenses.

⁸ For fixed income trades placed through one of Schwab's electronic channels, discounts may apply.

⁹ Schwab reserves the right to act as principal on any Bond transaction. In secondary market principal transactions the price will be subject to our standard mark up in the case of purchases, and a mark down in the case of sales, and also may include a profit or loss to Schwab in the form of a bid-ask spread. When trading as principal, Schwab may also be holding the security in its own account prior to selling it to you and, therefore, may make (or lose) money depending on whether the price of the security has risen or fallen while Schwab has held it.

Schwab Health Savings Brokerage Account (HSBA) is offered through Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (Schwab), a registered broker-dealer that also provides other brokerage and custody services to its customers.
