

Schwab Bank Investor Checking[™] Account Application for Existing Schwab One[®] Brokerage Account Holders

www.schwab.com | 1-888-403-9000

- Use this application to establish a Schwab Bank Investor Checking ("Investor Checking") account with Charles Schwab Bank, SSB ("Schwab Bank") and link it to your existing Schwab One Brokerage ("Brokerage") account held at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab"). All account holders must be either U.S. citizens or U.S. resident aliens, and must also reside in the U.S. or one of its territories and provide a U.S. mailing address.
- If your account is a general brokerage account, you will first need to update the account to a Schwab One Brokerage account. Please contact us if you are not sure about your account type.
- Once your Investor Checking account is approved and funded, you will receive Visa[®] Platinum Debit Card(s) from Schwab Bank. Personalized checks will be sent once your Investor Checking account is funded with at least $100.
- NOTE: The Schwab Bank Investor Checking[™] account is offered only as an account linked to a Schwab One[®] brokerage account. If the Investor Checking account is not approved by Schwab Bank, Schwab may close the linked Schwab One brokerage account regardless of when that brokerage account was opened. Schwab is not an FDIC-insured bank and deposit coverage insurance covers the failure of an insured bank. Non-deposit products are not insured by the FDIC; are not deposits; and may lose value.
- If you have a Schwab Global Account™, please review the Schwab Global Account disclosures in Section 5 of this application.
- Important note about your account: If you have appointed a Trading Authority (TA) role, Power of Attorney (POA), or designated beneficiaries on your existing Brokerage account, contact Schwab for the required forms to apply your TA, POA, or Designated Beneficiary Plan to your linked Investor Checking account. Your Investor Checking account cannot be established until Schwab receives this paperwork.

1. Existing Account Number

The registration of your Investor Checking account will be the same as the registration for your Brokerage account to which it is linked. Only the following account registrations are eligible for Investor Checking: Individual, Joint Tenants with Right of Survivorship, Tenants in Common and Community Property. (Trust accounts cannot be opened using this form. Please call us for the correct form.)

You also agree that Schwab is not responsible for any errors in calculation or damages resulting from errors in calculations or delays in transfers. In no event will Schwab be liable for any special, indirect or consequential damages, even if we have been informed of the possibility of such damages.

You authorize Schwab to act upon your requests for Real-Time Funds Transfers (as defined in the Schwab Bank Deposit Account Agreement) from Schwab Bank. The maximum amount you may transfer will be calculated in the same way that Schwab calculates the Authorization Limit for brokerage checkwriting privileges as set forth in the Schwab One Account Agreement. By requesting a Real-Time Funds Transfer, you understand that you may create a margin loan in your Brokerage account that may be subject to daily interest charges. In order for transfers to occur, both your Investor Checking account and your Brokerage account must be open and active and linked with each other. Target Balance Transfers will be limited to your Authorization Limit (as described in the Schwab One Account Agreement), excluding your Available Margin Loan Value (as defined in the Schwab One Account Agreement). Overdraft Transfers will be limited to your Authorization Limit.

If you have a debit balance in your Brokerage account, Target Balance Transfers will not be made to your Investor Checking account. Pending securities trades (including the Automatic Investment Plan [AIP]), pending debits to your Brokerage account, and pending transfers of funds from your account may not be considered in determining whether funds are available for transfer from your Brokerage account to your Investor Checking account at Schwab Bank.

Further, transfers of funds from your Brokerage account are subject to Schwab's minimum deposit requirements. You and your Brokerage account may not have any restrictions preventing Schwab from using funds in your Brokerage account to satisfy a transfer instruction from Schwab Bank. If your Brokerage account becomes subject to a restriction, your eligibility for this feature may be revoked, and you understand that Schwab Bank may close your Investor Checking account.

Transfers to Schwab Bank may result in debits in your Brokerage account. You acknowledge that you are responsible for all debits (and interest on debits) in your Brokerage account, as described in further detail in the Schwab One Account Agreement. Your Brokerage account remains an obligation solely of Schwab. Likewise, your Investor Checking account remains an obligation solely of Schwab Bank.
