Requirements for Establishing a Schwab One Estate Account:

1. You must be the Executor, Administrator or other Personal Representative appointed by the court to administer the Decedent's estate. For purposes of this application, the term "Executor" shall also include Administrators or other Personal Representatives appointed by the court to administer the estate.
2. A Schwab One Estate Account may be opened only if the estate is currently being probated under court supervision and a final decree of distribution has not been entered. (Note: This application should not be used to open an account for a Testamentary Trust, which requires completion of a Schwab One Trust Account Application.)
3. A new, separate Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) for the estate must be obtained from the IRS.
4. A minimum deposit or transfer of $1,000 in cash and/or securities is required, unless transferring from the Decedent's existing Schwab account.

Steps to Open an Estate Account:

1. Complete all eight sections of the application on the following pages. (Note that because a probate estate is a separate entity for legal and tax purposes, an Estate Account Application must be completed to open an Estate Account, even if the Decedent had an account at Schwab.)
2. Along with the application, submit a copy of your Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration, certified as currently valid by the court clerk within the past 60 days and bearing the clerk's original signature and seal.
3. Mail the completed Schwab One Estate Account Application with the required documentation in the envelope provided, or bring it to the Schwab branch nearest you.

Steps for Transferring Registration of Securities:

1. Contact a Schwab representative at your local Schwab branch to determine which documents are necessary to reregister the securities in the Schwab One Estate Account.
2. Gather the required documents from the appropriate sources. (A Schwab representative or an attorney can give you some guidance concerning where to locate these documents.) Bring the documents to your local Schwab branch.

Special Information:

About small estates. Please check with your attorney to determine whether the Decedent's estate is legally considered a "small estate" that may not require probate. If so, you will not be required to open a separate Estate Account to collect and distribute the Decedent's assets, and instead need only furnish us with a special form of affidavit provided by your attorney, together with a certified copy of the death certificate, an Affidavit of Domicile, and an Inheritance Tax Waiver (if required by the Decedent's state).

About opening a Schwab One Estate Account. With a Schwab One Estate Account, you can get checks in the name of the estate and earn daily income on uninvested cash.

About transferring estate investments from another brokerage firm to Schwab. If you wish to transfer estate investments held with another broker to Schwab, please ask a Schwab representative for assistance in completing a Transfer of Account form.

About margin borrowing and option trading in an Estate Account. A Schwab One Estate Account may only have margin borrowing and option trading solely for liquidation purposes if there were margin or option positions in the Decedent's existing brokerage account. No new margin or option positions may be created in a Schwab One Estate Account unless specifically authorized by court order. If you need to have margin or option features to liquidate existing positions, see the Schwab One® Estate Account Features Section.

About delegation of powers. An Executor or Administrator cannot grant a power of attorney or otherwise delegate his or her powers and duties to a third party unless specifically authorized by court order.

About estates with Co-Executors. Each Co-Executor who will be conducting business in the account must complete the Executor/Co-Executor Information Section and sign the Authorization to Open Account Section. All Co-Executors appointed by the court, even if not conducting business in the account, must be listed in the Executor/Co-Executor Information Section and must also sign in the Authorization to Open Account Section.

Schwab One® Estate Account Features

Your Consent to Enroll in Schwab's Cash Features Program

The Cash Features Program is a service that offers the Bank Sweep feature (a "Cash Feature") to permit your uninvested cash (the "Free Credit Balance") to earn income while you decide how those funds should be invested longer term.

You understand that additional information about the Cash Features Program and each Cash Feature is available in the Cash Features Disclosure Statement.

By signing this Application, you consent to having the Free Credit Balance in your brokerage account included in the Cash Features Program, as described in the Cash Features Disclosure Statement.

The Bank Sweep feature is designated as the Cash Feature for brokerage accounts of account holders residing in the U.S. Through the Bank Sweep feature, Schwab automatically makes deposits to and withdrawals from deposit accounts at one or more banks affiliated with Schwab ("Sweep Banks"). Your deposits at each Sweep Bank are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 (including principal and accrued interest) when aggregated with all other deposits held by you in the same insurable capacity at that bank. Your funds may be placed in a Sweep Bank in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. In certain limited circumstances, Schwab may place your funds in a sweep money market fund. Please see the Cash Features Disclosure Statement for additional information.

You understand and agree that Schwab may (1) make changes to the terms and conditions of the Cash Features Program; (2) make changes to the terms and conditions of any Cash Feature; (3) change, add, or discontinue any Cash Feature; (4) change your investment from one Cash Feature to another if you become ineligible for your current Cash Feature or your current Cash Feature is discontinued; and (5) make any other changes to the Cash Features Program or Cash Feature as allowed by law. Schwab will notify you in writing of changes to the terms of the Cash Features, changes to the Cash Features we make available, or changes to the Cash Features Program prior to the effective date of the proposed change.

Margin Borrowing or Option Trading

A Schwab One Estate Account may only have margin borrowing or option trading solely for liquidation purposes if there were margin or option positions in the Decedent's existing brokerage account. No new margin or option positions may be created in an Estate Account unless specifically authorized by court order.

Add margin feature for liquidation purposes only. Add option feature for liquidation purposes only.

I acknowledge that my signature signifies and constitutes my agreement that this account and my relationship with Schwab will be governed by the Application Agreement and all incorporated agreements and disclosures, including the Schwab One® Account Agreement and the Charles Schwab Pricing Guide, each as amended from time to time (the "Agreement and Disclosures"). I understand there are fees associated with establishing, maintaining, engaging in transactions and transferring assets out of this account. I also acknowledge that if I trade "on margin," I am borrowing money from Schwab and that I understand the requirements and risks associated with margin borrowing as summarized in the Overview and Disclosure Statement included with this Application.

I also acknowledge that the securities products purchased or sold in a transaction with Schwab (i) are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC); (ii) are not deposits or other obligations of Schwab and are not guaranteed by Schwab Bank; and (iii) are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal invested.

When the legal owner of assets in the Account is not a natural person, the terms "I," "my" and "Account Holder" also refer to such legal owner. The terms "we," "us," "our" and "Schwab" refer to Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. The term "Schwab Bank" refers to Charles Schwab Bank.

I understand that if I have been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of dividend or interest underreporting and I have not received a notice from the IRS advising me that backup withholding is terminated, I must cross out item 2 above.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

present or future account with us or our affiliates in which you have an interest. In the event of a breach or default by you under this Agreement, Schwab will have the rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under all applicable laws in addition to the rights and remedies provided in this Agreement.

If you owe money to Schwab as the result of activity in your Account and there are assets available in any non-retirement brokerage account that you hold at Schwab which could fully or partially satisfy the debt, you agree that upon Schwab's written demand, you will execute all documents necessary to effect a transfer from your non-retirement brokerage account and agree to pay or cause such funds to be paid immediately to Schwab in order to satisfy your indebtedness to Schwab.

Section 8: Liquidations.

Whenever it is necessary for our protection or to satisfy a debt or other obligation owed us, we may (but are not required to) sell, assign and deliver all or any part of the property securing your obligations, or close any or all transactions in your Account. We may choose which property to buy or sell, which transactions to close, and the sequence and timing of liquidation. We may take such actions on whatever exchange or market and in whatever manner (including public auction or private sale) that we choose in the exercise of our business judgment. You agree not to hold us liable for the choice of which property to buy or sell or of which transactions to close or for timing or manner of liquidation.

We may transfer property from any non-retirement brokerage account in which you have an interest to any other brokerage account in which you have an interest, regardless of whether there are other account holders on either account, if we determine that your obligations are not adequately secured or needed to satisfy a debt or other obligation. You agree to pay on demand any account deficiencies after liquidation, whether liquidation is complete or partial. All of the above may be done without demand or notice of purchase, sale, transfer or cancellation to you. No demand or notice shall impose on Schwab any obligation to make such demand or provide such notice to you in the future. Any such notice or demand is hereby expressly waived, and no specific demand or notice shall invalidate this waiver.

Section 9: Interest on Debit Balances.

We will charge and compound interest on your debit balances (whether in a Margin or Cash Account) according to our Disclosure of Credit Terms and Policies.

Section 10: Using the Check and Visa® Debit Card Features.

If you have requested check or Visa debit card features through your Account, you authorize checks and Visa debit cards to be issued as indicated in your Account Application. You agree that each Executor is authorized to write checks and engage in Visa debit card transactions, and you understand that if the checking feature is terminated, your Visa debit card will be automatically cancelled.

Section 11: Verification.

You authorize Schwab to inquire from any source, including a consumer reporting agency, as to your identity (as required by federal law), creditworthiness and ongoing eligibility for the Account (and that of any other person referred to on this Application or any person who Schwab is later notified is associated with or has an interest in the Account) at account opening, at any time throughout the life of the Account, and thereafter for debt collection or investigative purposes.

Section 12: Required Arbitration Disclosures.

Regulatory authorities require that any brokerage agreement containing a predispute arbitration agreement must disclose that this agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. This Agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:

- All parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Agreement.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until:

1. the class certification is denied;
2. the class is decertified; or
3. the customer is excluded from the class by the court.

Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

Section 13: Arbitration Agreement.

Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to (i) this Agreement, any other agreement with Schwab, an instruction or authorization provided to Schwab or the breach of any such agreements, instructions, or authorizations; (ii) the Account, any other Schwab account or Services; (iii) transactions in the Account or any other Schwab account; (iv) or in any way arising from the relationship with Schwab, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents or service providers ("Related Third Parties"), including any controversy over the arbitrability of a dispute, will be settled by arbitration.

This arbitration agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective representatives, attorneys-in-fact, heirs, successors, assigns and any other persons having or claiming to have a legal or beneficial interest in the Account, including court-appointed trustees and receivers. This arbitration agreement will also inure to the benefit of third-party service providers that assist Schwab in providing Services ("Third-Party Service Providers") and such Third-Party Service Providers are deemed to be third-party beneficiaries of this arbitration agreement.

The parties agree that this arbitration agreement will apply even if the application to open the Account is denied and will survive the closure of your Account and/or the termination of services rendered under this Agreement.

Such arbitration will be conducted by, and according to the securities arbitration rules and regulations then in effect of, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) or any national securities exchange that provides a forum for the arbitration of disputes, provided that Schwab is a member of such national securities exchange at the time the arbitration is initiated. Any party may initiate arbitration by filing a written claim with FINRA or such eligible national securities exchange. If arbitration before FINRA or an eligible national securities exchange is unavailable or impossible for any reason, then such arbitration will be conducted by, and according to the rules and regulations then in effect of, the American Arbitration Association (AAA). If arbitration before the AAA is unavailable or impossible for any reason, the parties agree to have a court of competent jurisdiction appoint three (3) arbitrators to resolve any and all disputes or controversies between or among the parties. Each party shall bear its own initial arbitration costs, which are determined by the rules and regulations of the arbitration forum. In the event of financial hardship, the arbitration forum may waive certain costs in accordance with such rules. At the conclusion of the hearing, the arbitrators will decide how to assess the costs of the arbitration among the parties. Any award the arbitrator makes shall be final and binding, and judgment on it may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. This arbitration agreement shall be enforced and interpreted exclusively in accordance with applicable federal laws of the United States, including the Federal Arbitration Act. Any costs, fees or taxes involved in enforcing the award shall be fully assessed against and paid by the party resisting enforcement of said award.

For FINRA arbitrations, FINRA will appoint a single public arbitrator in customer cases decided by one arbitrator. In customer cases decided by three arbitrators, investors have the option of choosing an arbitration panel with two public arbitrators and one non-public arbitrator (Majority-Public Panel Rule) or a panel of all public arbitrators (Optional All-Public Panel Rule). If the customer declines to elect a panel selection method in writing by the applicable deadline, the Majority-Public Panel Rule for selecting arbitrators will apply.

All notices from one party to the other involving arbitration shall be considered to have been fully given when so served, mailed by first-class, certified or registered mail, or otherwise given by other commercially accepted medium of written notification.

In addition to the above provisions, if a party to this Agreement is or becomes a non-U.S. resident at the time of any controversy subject to this arbitration agreement, such party acknowledges and agrees to the following additional provisions:

- (1) The rules of the organization administering the arbitration specifically provide for the formal designation of the place at which the arbitration is to be held.
- (2) Entering into this Agreement constitutes consent to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of the state of California, U.S.A., to interpret or enforce any or all of these arbitration provisions. Judgment on any arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction, or application may be made to such court for judicial acceptance of the award and an order of enforcement, as the case may be.
- (3) The exclusive language to be used by the parties and the arbitrators in the arbitration proceedings shall be English. Any party wishing an interpreter shall make all arrangements directly with the interpreter and shall assume all costs of the service.

- (4) If a party is a foreign government or state, state-owned or state-operated enterprise or other instrumentality of a foreign government or state, such party waives all rights of sovereign immunity and neither the Federal Act of State doctrine nor the doctrine of sovereign immunity shall apply insofar as any enforcement in courts located in the U.S.A. is concerned.

Section 14: Electronic Copies.

The electronically stored copy of your (or your agent's) signature, any written instructions or authorizations, the Account Application and the Agreement and Disclosures is considered to be the true, complete, valid, authentic and enforceable record, admissible in judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings to the same extent as if the documents and records were originally generated and maintained in printed form. You agree to not contest the admissibility or enforceability of Schwab's electronically stored copy of such documents in any proceeding between you and Schwab.

Section 15: Float.

You agree that Schwab may retain as compensation for services your Account's proportionate share of any interest earned on aggregate cash balances held in Schwab's bank account with respect to (1) assets awaiting investment or (2) assets pending distribution from your Account. Such interest retained by Schwab shall generally be at money market rates. Schwab's receipt of such compensation is further described in the Agreement and Disclosures.

Section 16: Unclaimed Property.

If no activity occurs in the Account within the time period specified by applicable state law, the Account may be transferred to the appropriate state.

Section 17: Information About SIPC.

To obtain information about Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC), including an explanatory SIPC brochure, please contact SIPC at www.sipc.org or 1-202-371-8300.

Section 18: Impartial Lottery for Securities Subject to Partial Call or Partial Redemption.

If Schwab holds securities for you in street name, in Schwab's name, or in bearer form that are subject to partial call or partial redemption, then in the case of a partial call or partial redemption Schwab will use an impartial lottery system to select the securities to be called or redeemed from among accounts holding those securities. For a description of Schwab's lottery system, please visit www.schwab.com/PartialCalls. - This is important information regarding margin borrowing, if you have requested the margin feature on your brokerage account.
- Please retain this document for your files.
- When using margin, please keep these important rules and conditions in mind.
- A complete list of terms and conditions pertaining to margin trading and short selling, including credit terms and policies, can be found in the Account Agreement. The Account Agreement will be provided to you after account opening or you can access it at any time on our website or by calling us. Please read this important document before opening a margin account.
- For questions regarding margin borrowing, please contact us at the numbers listed above. For clients of independent investment advisors, please call your advisor directly or call Schwab Alliance at 1-800-515-2157.

When considering a margin loan, you should determine how the use of margin fits your own investment philosophy. It is important that you fully understand the risks, rules, and requirements involved in trading securities on margin.

The following paragraphs highlight some of the critical aspects of margin trading:

Margin trading increases your level of market risk.

Margin trading increases your buying power, allowing you to purchase a greater amount of securities with your investing dollar. Therefore, your exposure to market volatility increases—a declining market could result in even greater losses. A decline in the value of your securities that you purchase on margin may require you to provide additional funds to Schwab in order to avoid the forced sale of those securities or other securities in your account.

Your downside is not limited to the collateral value in your margin account.

When you buy securities on margin, you are borrowing money from Schwab for part of your transactions. Securities and other assets in your Schwab account(s) are pledged as collateral to secure this loan. These margin transactions are riskier and involve the possibility of greater loss than transactions where you are not borrowing money. If the securities in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan. When the value of the collateral falls below the maintenance margin requirements, or Schwab's higher "house" requirements, Schwab can move to protect its position. In order to cover margin deficiencies, Schwab may issue you a margin call—a request for additional cash—or sell securities from your account. If a sale does not cover the deficiency, you will be responsible for any shortfall.

Schwab may initiate the sale of any securities in your account, without contacting you, to meet a margin call.

Schwab will attempt to involve you in the case of margin deficiency; however, market conditions may require the firm to quickly sell any of your securities without your consent. Because the securities are collateral for the margin loan, Schwab has the right to decide which security to sell in order to protect its interests. Even if Schwab has contacted you and provided a specific date by which you can meet a margin call, the firm can still take necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately selling the securities without prior notice to you.

Schwab's "house" initial and maintenance margin requirements may exceed those established by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. Please call Schwab for current margin requirements.

Schwab may change its initial margin requirements at any time and without prior notice.

We may also impose anytime and without prior notice more stringent requirements on positions that in our sole discretion involve higher levels of risk; for example, higher limits may apply for thinly traded, speculative or volatile securities, or concentrated positions of securities.

Schwab may increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you with advance written notice.

Changes in Schwab's policy regarding "house" maintenance margin requirements often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. Your failure to satisfy the call may cause Schwab to liquidate or sell securities in your account.

Schwab retains absolute discretion to determine whether, when and in what amounts we will require additional collateral. For example, we may require additional collateral if an account contains only one security or a large concentration of one or more securities; or low-priced, thinly traded or volatile securities; or if some of your collateral is or becomes restricted or non-negotiable or non-marginable. We may also consider market conditions, your financial resources, or other factors deemed by us to be relevant given the circumstances at the time.

You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to customers under certain conditions, a customer does not have a right to the extension.

Some accounts that carry a margin loan balance and hold dividend-paying securities may receive a "substitute income payment in lieu of a dividend" (PIL). This payment may be taxable as ordinary income. Taxable accounts that receive a PIL instead of a qualified dividend may also receive a supplemental credit from Schwab. This will be identified on customer statements as a "Schwab substitute income credit." However, when Schwab can identify that a dividend is nonqualified, we will not credit your account with this additional payment.

- This credit is NOT "payment in lieu," and is unrelated to any payment from either the security issuer or the borrower.
- It is a discretionary credit from Schwab which may be discontinued in the future with or without notice.*
- It may be subject to tax at your ordinary income tax rate. Please consult your tax advisor about your specific tax situation.
- Because individual tax situations differ, Schwab cannot precisely calculate the additional tax costs a client might incur. Therefore, we do not intend, nor should clients expect, for this payment to be an exact reimbursement of any excess tax cost.

*Please refer to the "Loan Consent" section of your Account Agreement which states that no compensation is due in connection with such loans and that Schwab "is not required to compensate you for any differential tax treatment between dividends and payments in lieu of dividends."

Interest Rates and Yields (Continued)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The interest rate on the Bank Sweep for Benefit Plans feature is set by our affiliated bank(s), which intend to pay interest consistent with reasonable rate provisions of applicable legal and regulatory requirements. This may be lower than some competitors' rates. Interest rates do not vary by tiers and do not vary based on your cash balances. ▪ Money market mutual funds offered through the Money Fund Sweep feature seek to achieve the highest yield (less fees and expenses) consistent with prudence and their investment objectives. Cash features are not intended to be long-term investments, and yields on any of our cash features may be lower than those of similar investments or deposit accounts offered outside the Cash Features Program. If you desire to maintain cash balances for other than a short-term period and/or are seeking the highest yields currently available in the market, please contact your Schwab representative or visit www.schwab.com/cash for investment options that may be available outside of the Cash Features Program to help maximize your return potential consistent with your investment objectives and risk tolerance. Benefits to Schwab	We may charge fees and receive certain benefits under the different cash features. A portion of these fees and benefits may be shared with your investment professional. Because of these fees and benefits, we have a financial incentive to select the particular cash features included in the Cash Features Program.
Differing Risks and Account Protection	The different cash features are subject to different risks and account protection: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The Schwab One® Interest feature is not subject to market risk and value loss but is subject to the risk of Schwab's failure. In the unlikely event that Schwab fails, cash is eligible for SIPC coverage up to a limit of $250,000 (including principal and interest) per client in each insurable capacity (e.g., individual or joint). Free credit balances held at Schwab are not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC. ▪ The Bank Sweep and Bank Sweep for Benefit Plans features are not subject to market risk and value loss but are subject to the risk of the failure of one or more of our affiliated banks. In the unlikely event that one or more of our affiliated banks fails, deposits at each bank are eligible for FDIC insurance protection up to a limit of $250,000 (including principal and interest) per depositor in each insurable capacity (e.g., individual, joint, and plan participant). This limit includes any other deposits you may have at that bank outside of the Bank Sweep and Bank Sweep for Benefit Plans features. You are responsible for monitoring your bank balances in the Bank Sweep and Bank Sweep for Benefit Plans features and the balances in any of your other bank accounts at each affiliated bank to determine if these, in total, exceed FDIC insurance limits. Monies held in both features are not covered by SIPC. ▪ Money market mutual funds in the Money Fund Sweep feature invest in high-quality, short-term securities and seek to maintain a stable value, but are subject to market risks and potential value loss. They are not bank accounts and are not subject to FDIC insurance protection. They are instead covered by SIPC, which protects against the custodial risk (and not a decline in market value) when a brokerage firm fails by replacing missing securities and cash up to a limit of $500,000, of which $250,000 may be cash. Shares held through the Money Fund Sweep feature are not considered cash, but are treated as securities for SIPC coverage.

It is your responsibility to notify Schwab or Schwab Bank of any change in your email address by logging in to the Schwab site and going to Service > My Profile > Email Addresses or using the contact information above. In addition to the unenrollment process outlined above, if we receive any indication either that the email notification did not reach you successfully or that there is a problem with your email address or service, we will take the following actions:

- Tax Forms—Send a letter by postal mail within two business days to inform you that we were unable to deliver your tax form electronically. Records and Disclosures Included in Schwab and Schwab Bank's Paperless Documents Program

Tax Forms ("eTax Documents")

A tax document provides important information you need to complete your tax returns. Much of the information we provide in tax documents is also reported to the IRS. This includes any corrected tax documents and accompanying notices. When a tax document is ready, we will send an email notification with the subject line "IMPORTANT TAX RETURN DOCUMENT AVAILABLE" and containing a web link to the document available after you log in.

Trade Confirmations ("eConfirms")

A trade confirmation is an official record of your securities transaction. It includes the price, number of shares, and the commission we charge you, as well as disclosures required under federal law. If you choose to receive paperless trade confirmations, the terms and conditions of your transaction will appear in the email and on a web page you can link to from the email. Your consent to receive paperless trade confirmations also includes paperless delivery of prospectuses or other regulatory information we provide to you at the time of your trade. Your consent to receive paperless trade confirmations also covers paperless delivery of Trade Confirmation Reports (TCRs) if you elect this alternative as part of your Managed Account enrollment.

Statements and Account Documents ("eStatements")

An account statement provides important information about your account, including the price and quantity of securities you hold, the transactions conducted, other activity in your account, and terms and conditions governing your account. Account statements are sent at the end of each month in which you conducted activity in your account or at the end of each calendar quarter, regardless of any account activity. With your account statements, we often include accompanying account-related notices and other regulatory information, including, but not limited to, Schwab's Statement of Financial Condition, pricing changes, changes to payment features, privacy policy, annual notices, amendments to your account agreements, and any other documents, notices, and disclosures required by law or regulatory rules to be provided to you. At account opening and from time to time thereafter, we also send you notifications about your account. Collectively, we call these documents, notices, and disclosures "account documents." When you consent to paperless account statements, you also consent to paperless account documents.

Investment Advisory Service Disclosures (A Sub-Category of Account Documents)

Your consent to paperless Statements and Account Documents includes investment advisory program disclosures, brochure supplements with information about individual Schwab representatives, and related materials such as periodic updates or annual summaries of any changes to those documents ("Form ADV Disclosures") as Schwab makes these available in the future. The investment advisory programs may include Schwab Private Client™, Schwab Managed Portfolios™, Schwab Managed Account Services™, the Schwab Advisor Network®, Schwab Intelligent Portfolios®, and other similar advisory services, and fee-based Financial Planning Services. In addition to Schwab's and its affiliates' own Form ADV Disclosures, your consent also covers ADV Disclosures from third-party investment advisors whose services you select through Schwab. Paperless Form ADV Disclosures may accompany your account statements or be sent independently. If the third party does not make its Form ADV Disclosures available electronically, you will instead receive the standard printed materials by postal mail.

Shareholder Materials ("Electronic Delivery")

Shareholder materials include regulatory information such as prospectuses; prospectus supplements; quarterly, semi-annual, and annual reports; and proxy materials. You will receive an email notification with a web link to shareholder materials if you have a position in an equity or mutual fund as of the record date for a particular shareholder distribution and the materials are made available electronically by the issuer or third party. If the issuer or third party does not make shareholder materials available electronically, you will instead receive the standard printed materials by postal mail. By providing your consent to receive electronic delivery of shareholder material, you also consent to electronic householding. This means that if you and someone else enroll in this paperless service using the same email address, we may send one email announcement to this email address if each account holds securities of the same issuer. This avoids duplicate mailings of shareholder documents. If you no longer want electronic householding of your shareholder materials, you must modify your Paperless Documents enrollment as described above. Your shareholder materials may include electronic proxies. You may elect to vote your proxy online at proxymote.com by entering the control number included in your email announcement and the last four digits of your Social Security number or Taxpayer Identification Number as your PIN.
