

Socially Conscious Funds List

This list is derived from Morningstar, Inc.^{®1} “Socially Conscious” data, which indicates if the fund identifies itself as selectively investing based on certain noneconomic principles. These funds may make investments based on such issues as environmental responsibility, human rights, or religious views. A socially conscious fund may take a proactive stance by selectively investing in, for example, environmentally friendly companies or firms with good employee relations. This list also includes funds that may avoid investing in companies in the defense industry or companies involved in promoting alcohol, tobacco, or gambling.

The “Leading Mutual Funds” with the ▲ symbol on this list have met certain quantitative and qualitative criteria beyond simply being available and identified by Morningstar, Inc. as Socially Conscious. Please see page 8 for more information.

Each fund on the Socially Conscious Funds List has identified itself as “Socially Conscious” according to data received from Morningstar, Inc. and must be open to new investors at Schwab.

How Leading Mutual Funds are selected

“Leading Mutual Funds” with the ▲ symbol have met certain quantitative and qualitative criteria beyond simply being available and identified by Morningstar, Inc. as Socially Conscious. This subset of the Socially Conscious Funds List features eligible actively managed mutual funds evaluated by Charles Schwab Investment Advisory, Inc. (CSIA) and that generally fall within the top 35% of all evaluated funds within a given Morningstar Category based upon CSIA ratings.

Additionally, each Leading Mutual Funds List fund must:

- Have a minimum three-year performance track record, and
- Have at least $20 million in assets under management across all share classes.

Actively managed mutual funds, including Schwab Affiliate Funds, are evaluated by CSIA based on a quantitative analysis of risk, performance, expenses, active share (when meaningful), assets under management, and asset flows. CSIA also may apply additional qualitative factors to its analysis to enhance its overall evaluation of a fund, including, for example, changes in a fund’s investment strategy or management structure, portfolio manager tenure, whether a fund’s investment style and portfolio holdings are representative of its investment category, portfolio composition and turnover rates, consistency of a fund’s performance and CSIA’s evaluation of the fund over time, and other risk and diversification considerations.

There is no limit to the number of funds that can be included on the Leading Mutual Funds List in any category.

Investing in mutual funds at Schwab

Trades in no-load mutual funds participating in the Schwab Mutual Fund OneSource® service (including Schwab Funds®), as well as certain other funds, are available without transaction fees. For each of these trades placed through a broker, a $25 service charge applies. Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (“Schwab”) reserves the right to change the funds made available without transaction fees and to reinstate fees on any funds. Schwab’s short-term redemption fee of $49.95 will be charged on the redemption of funds purchased through Schwab’s Mutual Fund OneSource service (and certain other funds with no transaction fees) and held for 90 days or less. Schwab reserves the right to exempt certain funds from this fee, including Schwab Funds, which may charge a separate redemption fee, and funds that accommodate short-term trading. Schwab receives remuneration from fund companies participating in the Mutual Fund OneSource service for recordkeeping and shareholder services and other administrative services. Schwab also may receive remuneration from transaction fee fund companies for certain administrative services.

Investing in exchange traded funds (ETFs) at Schwab

Unlike mutual funds, shares of ETFs are not individually redeemable directly with the ETF. Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price, which may be higher or lower than the net asset value (NAV).

Schwab receives remuneration from third-party ETF companies participating in Schwab ETF OneSource™ for recordkeeping, shareholder services, and other administrative services, including program development and maintenance.

Third-party Schwab ETF OneSource shares purchased may not be immediately marginable at Schwab.

Conditions apply: Trades in ETFs available through Schwab ETF OneSource (including Schwab ETFs™) are available without commissions when placed online in a Schwab account. Service charges apply for trade orders placed through a broker ($25) or by automated phone ($5). An exchange-processing fee applies to sell transactions. Certain types of Schwab ETF OneSource transactions are not eligible for the commission waiver, such as short sells and buys to cover (not including Schwab ETFs). Schwab reserves the right to change the ETFs we make available without commissions. All ETFs are subject to management fees and expenses.
